Statement of Michael B. Kaplowitz,
Chairman of the Westchester County Board of Legislators

In 2011 the Westchester County Board of Legislators passed a local law that, among other things, made Board of Legislators' action sufficient to authorize the County Executive to implement Inter-Municipal Agreements – without approval of the Board of Acquisition and Contracts. The local law has subsequently been judicially sustained.

There is today a resolution before the Board of Acquisition and Contracts authorizing the County Executive to enter into Inter-Municipal Agreements.

I will vote for the resolution because I am in favor of the underlying matter. I recognize that the resolution is on the agenda pro forma.
